

General Information POST / COMMENT POLICY

The City of Douglass's Facebook page was created to facilitate the exchange of information with the public at large. The City encourages and welcomes postings and comments from the public about issues related to the community and local government of Douglass. However, the City reserves the right to regulate the content of, and where necessary delete completely, any objectionable entry that appears on its page. The City is responsible for monitoring all postings to its Facebook page and may take appropriate action whenever necessary, and at its sole discretion, to protect other page visitors from inappropriate or otherwise harmful information and links. To that end, the City will remove as soon as feasible any posting that involves:

- Advertisements of any kind.
- Profane language or content.
- Content that promotes, fosters or perpetuates discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, age, religion, gender, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, national origin, physical or mental disability, or sexual orientation.
- Explicit or implied sexual content.
- Conduct implying, promoting or encouraging illegal activity. • Information that might compromise the safety or security of the public.
- Any post that might be considered libelous (an untrue written statement that harms another person's reputation). • Comments/posts that are repetitive.
- Comments on post/photos that do not pertain to the page post.
- Any other posting that, by its nature or content, might harm public welfare.
